

V. A. Gaychenko

FAUNISTIC COMPLEXES AS THE OBJECT OF RADIOECOLOGICAL MONITORING

Importance of comprehensive study of the state and functioning faunal complexes for radioecological investigations and related generalizations was demonstrated. The examples of radioecological generalizations using this approach were performed.

Keywords: radioecology, faunistic complexes, entomocomplexes, population, population structure, dose dependence.